often that a member of that they always come from the upper atmosphere, where the temperature is all times below the freezing point. His theory of the formation of the cold wave—that it is exactly the reverse of the formation of a rain storm—is likewise novel. "In the cyclone," he says, "there is a gyration in one direction, in which the heated air goes up. In the cold wave the gyration is reversed and the cold air is forced down. That is all there is to it." But that is a great deal, if it is a fact so well attested by repeated observations that it may be affirmed with any confidence as a settled principle in the as yet inexact science of meteorology. However that may be, Professor Moore shows the true scientific spirit in "carefully collecting the failures" in his quest for nature's weather laws. The Department must have plenty of data of that sort on hand, and from a study of such material may yet come the scientific solution of all the weather vagaries.

STREET TALK.

Manager Mothesay, of the Lima Telephone Company, said this morning that the new line would be ready for operation Monday. In reference to whether the company would come down in rates or not, he said when the company began to solicit for subscribers they figured the price down as low as possible so as to leave a profit, and as all of their contracts were for two years, they would not make any reduction.

A cablegram received this morning by the family announced the safe arrival in Liverpool of Mr. M. J. Morris, of this city, who sailed a week ago Wednesday.

Some Lima capitalists are busy securing the right of way for an electric road from Lima through this city to St. Marys. They say that if the right of way can be secured the line will be operation before next winter.—Wapakoneta Republican.

"There is every indication," remarked a fruit man the other day, "that the apple crop this year will be enormous, notwithstanding the heavy frosts in May. In almost every locality the apple trees have as much fruit on them as the limbs will support. Most of those who have apple orchards have trees that are just beginning to bear. The old, gnarled orchards have been cut away, and a finer grade of fruit is taking the place of the kinds our fathers had. There are some people, however, that will hang onto their old orchards as long as they produce an apple. Everybody should keep up with the times, and when one hears of something good and new in fruit or anything else, he should take hold of it."

Painters are at work on the balcony lobby of Fauror's Opera House. The interior work is all completed and when the theatre is finished there will be no finer theatre in the country. The house will open on the 15th of next month with Billy Van-big minstrel show.

Bicycle tourists, who wish to invade Canada, will learn with interest that, according to synopsis series 1035, treasury department, May 5, 1895, bicycles are of duty as personal effects, limited to one bicycle brought by one person, in case that bicycle is not a new one or has evidences that it has been used. By a decision of the United States appraisers not later than March the decision was that bicycles are not personal baggage, hence dutiable to the amount of 35 per cent. Tourists to Canada would do well to procure a certificate of clearance and return to the custom house, thus saving all chance for a discussion. The matter is not generally understood. By referring the officials as to synopsis series 1035 the bicycle could also be gotten in and out of Canada free.

YOUNG BODEN'S DEATH.

The Supposition is Now That He Was Murdered.

Young Bowden was a young man of good habits and a son of engineer John Bowden, who pulls the Lima-Crestline local, and a brother-in-law of conductor M. O. Guinty, of this city. Was the Concert at Haver's Lake Last Evening.

The concert given at Haver's lake last night, under the auspices of the Lima Military Band, drew an unusually large crowd to that resort.

Prior to the beginning of the formal programme the Military Band played several selections, and then the opening numbers of the programme were rendered by the St. Marys Imperial Band, which is one of the best brass bands in this part of the State.

Before the programme was fairly opened, a slow, steady fall of rain began, and everyone was driven under cover. While waiting for hacks to arrive, the people crowded into the refreshment building were entertained by an accomplished accordion player from St. Marys, and the Orford quartette, of South Lima.

LUCKY JIM MCCORMICK.

He Sells Out His Oil Interests at a Big Profit.

Jim McCormick, formerly of this city has made a rich strike in Indiana. Jim left here a year or so ago and went into the Northern Indiana Oil company, with headquarters at Bluffton. A dispatch from Bluffton says: The largest individual oil stock deal in the history of Indiana companies was made last evening by James McCormick, of this city, who was manager and owner of one-fourth interest in the Northern Oil company. He received for his share $60,000, all of which was made from an investment of $2,500 four years ago. The company was organized in 1890 with a capital stock of $30,000 by local men, who operated two years and then sold to Eastern capitalists for $125,000. McCormick retaining one-fourth interest. The present company controls eight thousand acres of rich oil territory, and had a production of 15,000 barrels monthly. Ed Little, formerly of Lima, will act as manager.
